

TOC

- The customers must acknowledge and agree that Bake & Wrap may share the customers information to the employee of the company.
- Registration process requires the customers to provide accurate personal information.
- The Customers must register on the application before processing an order.
- Delivery Charges are based on the location of the customers.
- Some specific products have a minimum quantity to order.
- The customers cannot cancel the order once it is received.